BERRIMA PATCHWORK PRESENTS QUILTING IN THE HIGHLANDS

Welcome to our very first Quilting in the Highlands. 5 Fantastic teachers over 4 days of workshops, Saturday 28th July till Tuesday 31st July 2012. Berrima Patchwork is bringing the Best of Quilting to the Highlands.

Our teachers are award winners, authors and fabric designers. We are very excited to have joining us from America Carol Doak and Melinda Bula. Carol specializes in paper piecing and has over 1 million books in print. Melinda's quilts are simply breathtaking, she creates unique quilts using her Fabulous Fusible Techniques and then quilts them with such skill to give further depth. The back of Melinda's quilts are as stunning as the front. From Australia we are excited to have Michele Hill, Sue Dennis and Leesa Chandler. Michele's quilts bring the spirit of William Morris alive and we are able to offer you an exclusive quilt designed by Michele: Fantasy meets at midnight. Sue is well known within the art quilt community, her quilts explore various techniques and embellishments and have been on exhibition internationally. Leesa is known for her fabric design of "Under The Australian Sun" and her love of oriental design. She will not only be teaching a class with her new collection of fabric but her Geisha designed quilt.

We are offering 2 x 2 day workshops with each of the teachers over the four days, you can choose just to join us for 2 days or take 2 x 2 day workshops.

With each of the 2 days of workshops lunch and morning tea for both days is included. For those booked into workshops on Saturday and Sunday we have a special evening event at Mittagong RSL included in your booking fee. For those booked into workshops on Monday and Tuesday we have a special evening dinner event at Vin Santo Restaurant Mittagong included. We have a evening event in which the meal is included and the opportunity to win one of the many giveaway prizes that have been donated by our sponsors.
